AMUSEMENTS.

Minnie Maddern,

days ago, was produced last evening, with Minnie Maddern as "Alice Clendenning." That she has improved in personal appearance so one who saw her in the beginning of a career as a star can doubt, but it must be admitted that she has perverted great natural salents which were then very apparent. In simple, light e-medy she would be a success, and if she could get rid of certain mannerisms, which make everything she does, no matter what the play, she she does, no matter what the play, she might rise to a lofty height in the more serious dramat'c productions, for which, indeed, she seems to have an unconquerable ambition. The run of sixty days which In Spite of All had in New York, can only be accounted for by the metropolitan love of novelty. "Alice Clendenning," as Miss Maddern does it, is a novelty of the first water. She either speaks so rapidly that she cannot be understood or else affectedly repeats words and or else affectedly repeats words and destroy heir force, making the part in destroy heir force, making the part in effect an erratic, eccentric pantomime. Taken as a whole, the performance last night was satisfactory. Mile. Nadia is an elegant at tress and more than divided the honors with Mizs Maddern. Her "Stella," in spite of the fect that the dishabille costume was unbecoming, was very good. Cyril Scott made a hit as the bad brother and Joseph Frankan was excellent as and Joseph Frankan was excellent as the "Manager." J. T. Su livau's "Ciendenning" was a very unsatisfac-tory performance. He was anything but the "easy man of the world." The same play will be given to night

Mr. Carden's Lecture.

Another large and intelligent audience was present at the First Baptist church last night to hear Mr. Carden's excellent lecture on St. Paul. This lecture gives the accomplished elocu-tionist abundant opportunity for the display of his highly cultivated dra-matic gifts, and is replete with brilli-ant word coloring. It is also copi-ously enriched with selections from Scripture, which he recites in his best

A Help to Good Digestion. In the British Medical Journal Dr. W R herts of England discusses the effect of I quors, tea, coffee and cocoa on digestion. All of them retard the chemcal processes, but most of them stimu-late the glandular activity and muscular contract ons. Distilled spirits re-ard the salivary or peptic digestion but slightly when sparingly used. Wines were found to be highly in-jurious to the salivary digestion. On peptic digestion all wines exert a re-tarding influence. They stimulate the glat dular and muscular activity of the stomsch. Effervescent wines exert the gestest amount of good with the least harm to digestion. When one's digestion is out of order everything goes sarry, unless, as in the case of T. T. Memphis men can afford to dress well. The Misfit Clothing Parlors gives them the advantage of buying fine merchant tailor's clothing at about one-half its actual value.

busy during the past two months hunting up bargains for Spring. We now have our Parlors packed with beautiful new goods. Better still, our prices are wonderfully low. Come quick and inspect these hand-
